white Black Panther Party sympathizers called Friends of the Panthers, had been a COINTELPRO target in order to destroy the confidence between the Panthers and the Friends of the Panthers. According to a letter from the Los Angeles FBI office to Hoover, which was given to the Church Committee: "Any exposure [of Freed] will not only deny the Panthers money, but additionally, would cause other white supporters of the BPP to withdraw their support. It is felt that the Los Angeles chapter of the BPP could not operate without the financial support of white sympathizers."

The FBI did not tell Congress that Freed had become a COINTELPRO target in part because of Judge Kaufman's telephone call to Hoover. Kaufman's call was the straw that broke the camel's back.

Donald Freed had been an anthropology instructor at San Fernando Valley State College in Los Angeles. The case agent, Phil Denny, saw to it that Freed lost his contract in 1969. When Freed tried to get a job at California State College in Fullerton, California, in the fall of 1969, Denny sent word to the proper person in Fullerton and Donald Freed was not hired. (The last I knew, Freed was a professor at the University of California at Los Angeles.)

Two months after Kaufman's call to Hoover, Hoover authorized the San Francisco FBI office on July 1, 1969, to pass out 200 copies of a leaflet, created and printed by the Crime Records Division, in the vicinity of a Black Panther Party-sponsored national conference in Oakland, California, alleging that "Donald Freed is a PIG."

The FBI's leaflet read in part as follows: "We don't know what breed of a pig he is, but Freed is a LAPD PIG, an FBI PIG, a CIA PIG or maybe even a Sheriff PIG—but he is a pig, an informer who deals with his fellow pigs and betrays us all."

A copy of the leaflet was obtained from the FBI file on Donald Freed through the Freedom of Information Act. (See page117.) I observed this leaflet in Donald Freed's Los Angeles FBI file during the 1977 file review as a result of Freed's FOIA request. The FBI documents pertaining to Judge Kaufman's telephone call to Hoover were also obtained through the Freedom of Information Act. These documents were given to me by Donald Freed in 1978.

The COINTELPRO against Donald Freed did not work—no harm came to him. After my retirement, I attended one of Freed's

Targeting Actress Jean Seberg

Jean Seberg is best known for her role in Otto Preminger's 1957 film "Saint Joan."

The FBI had monitored Seberg's checking account and found she had given over $10,000 to the Black Panther Party. Special Agent Richard Wallace Held was upset at Jean's generosity to the Panthers.

The FBI could not understand the motivation for Seberg's cash donations. I figured she was an easy touch for any hard-luck story. She constantly opened her purse to the Panthers. Other agents crassly assumed she was sexually involved with members of the Black Panther Party. Seberg was active with Friends of the Panthers.

The Los Angeles Racial Squad fired off a Confidential communiqué to Hoover about Jean Seberg stating that, "This is to furnish information that subject, a beautiful, internationally known white American actress with black extremist relationships and sympathies, is reportedly a sex pervert."

Jean Seberg was married to the world-renowned French diplomat and writer Romain Gary. They lived in an apartment on Rue du Bac in Paris. She had just returned to Paris from making a film in Durango, Mexico, in 1970.

Seberg explained to Jane Friedman, a reporter from the International Herald Tribune, that "she [had fallen] in love with Carlos Navarra, a Mexican 'revolutionary,' while shooting 'a bad movie named Macho Callahan in Durango.' Miss Seberg said Mr. Navarra was the father of the child she was expecting. 'I don't want to abort,' she said. 'Romain said he would assume fatherhood.'"

The FBI had wiretaps on the Panther headquarters in Los Angeles as well as wiretaps on the private residences of several top leaders of the Panthers in Los Angeles. Transcripts of wiretapped conversations were made available under the Freedom of Information Act. One conversation involving Seberg formed the basis of a smear campaign designed to destroy Seberg's reputation, with the of weakening ties between the Black Panthers an group Friends of the Panthers.

The call from Elaine Brown, a top leader of the I Party, placed to Seberg in Paris on April 21, 1970, is
